The Sacred in the Secular: how do Christians read fiction?

Carolyn Sanderson
Via Zoom

Thursdays: 7.30 - 8.30pm
30th September - 4th November

This six-week course offers the opportunity to read and discuss the impact of Phoebe: A Story by Paula Gooder, which weaves a fictional story around some of the characters named in the Letter to the Romans, bringing to life the world of the first century Church.

New and used copies available from a number of booksellers: Abe Books, Oxfam, Eden, BUUKS.uk. It would be helpful to have read the first part (the story) before the first session.

What is Ecumenism? A guide for the Perplexed

John Robertson
Via Zoom

Tuesdays: 7.30 - 9.00pm

We will explore ecumenism, what it means, why it's important and how it is changing. Let's explode some myths and find some inspiration for the future!
